

Gloucestershire Young Musician 2022

Entry information

The 2022 Gloucestershire Young Musician competition will consist of one class, open to entrants under the age of 22 years on or before 1 March 2022.

First round

Applicants in five categories (piano, strings, woodwind, brass, and orchestral percussion) will be invited to give a 12-minute recital before an adjudicator on Sunday 9 January 2022 at Gloucestershire Academy of Music, Barbican House, Gloucester, GL1 2JF. As a result of this stage, a maximum of six finalists (or fewer, at the adjudicator's discretion) will be selected to proceed to the final.

Competition final

The selected finalists will each give a 15-minute recital before an audience and a panel of adjudicators on Tuesday 8 March 2022 at Pittville Pump Room, Cheltenham, GL52 3JE.

Finalists will be offered an individual Masterclass in Performance, in January/February, to help them prepare for their performance in the final.

At the Final, the following prizes will be awarded:

1st prize

1. The Hewitt Jones Award
2. A cheque for £500
3. Three performances:
 - i) a concerto performance with Gloucestershire Symphony Orchestra
 - ii) a concerto performance with Gloucestershire Youth Orchestra
 - iii) a recital at Cheltenham Music Festival

Audience prize

1. A cheque for £200 awarded by the Carducci Quartet
2. A recital at the Carducci Festival at Highnam

The winner of this prize is selected via audience vote on the evening of the final.

All other finalists (including the winner of the Audience Prize)

1. A cheque for £50
